

ELDORADO

Gaily bedight,
A gallant knight,
In the sunshine and in the shadow,
Had journeyed long,
Singing a song,
In search of Eldorado.

Over the mountains of the Moon,
Down to the Valley of the Shadow,
Ride, boldly ride, shadow replied
If you seek for Eldorado!

But he grew old -
This knight so bold -
At the end, he met a Pilgrim Shadow -
"Shadow," said he,
"Where can it be -
This land of Eldorado?"

Over the mountains of the Moon,
Down to the Valley of the Shadow,
Ride, boldly ride, shadow replied
If you seek for Eldorado!